

For SHAME!

I believe that by allowing less companies to own more stations and forms of media is the opposite of what media and broadcasting is all about. This limits free speech and makes everything the same on the air waves. I strongly reject your decision and hold much less faith in your logic. Sincerely, Michael Fiscus